

NATIONAL REMOTE WORKING STUDY

7,241

respondents

would like to work remotely on a daily basis

would like to work remotely several times a week

would like to work remotely several times a month

they do not want to continue working remotely

51% never worked remotely before COVID-19

of that 78%

want to continue to work remotely post-COVID-19

48%

report that it is easy or somewhat easy to work effectively these days

37%

report that it is difficult or somewhat difficult to

TOP 3

ADVANTAGES

CHALLENGES

1. no traffic and no commute
2. reduced costs of going to work and commuting
3. greater flexibility as to how to manage the working day

1. not being able to switch off from work
2. collaboration and communication with colleagues and co-workers is harder
3. poor physical workspace

KEY RECOMMENDATIONS

FOR EMPLOYERS

Assist with provision of better and more ergonomic physical workspace

Better management of video-conferencing

Reduce expectations and workload to more realistic levels

Regular communication and check-ins

Provide a range of well-being supports

Managing annual leave and time off

85%

somewhat agree or strongly agree that their organisation is doing its best in the circumstances

In terms of location, for those who would like to work remotely after the crisis is over:

51%

would like to work from home

36%

would like a mix of home/hub or work-sharing space and onsite

11%

would like to work in a mix of home and hub/work-sharing space

2%

would like to work solely in a hub/work-sharing space